Sir,

ENCLOSURES.....

Special pay - Type-writing - Rs.10/- per mensem drawn for P. Sundararaja Mudaliar - Typist under the Revenue

Divisional Officer, Bellary - Disallowed by the Accountant-

SPARE COPIES.....

General.

The Accountant-General has objected to the type-writing special pay of Rs.10/- drawn for P. Sundararaja Mudaliar from 2.11.32 on the ground that the sanction accorded in G.O.No. 808 Mis. Revenue dated 28.5.1924 relates to the post of typist in the Revenue Divisional Office, Hospet, and that it is not therefore admissible to him while he holds the post of typist in the Revenue Divisional Office, Bellary. He has therefore instructed the Treasury Deputy Collector to recover the excess amount paid to him or obtain the sanction of the Government for its waiver. The excess amount paid to him from November 32 comes to Rs.170/-.

2. The G.O.No. 808 Mis. Revenue Department dated 29.5.1924 sanctioning the special pay to P. Sundararaja Mudaliar does not say specifically that the individual should draw his special pay as a Typist of the Sub Collector's office only. And so, when he was transferred to the Revenue Divisional Office, Bellary, it was thought that the special pay granted to him was personal and that though the special pay is not attached to the post of typist in that office, the grantee was eligible for the special pay so long as he was actually engaged in --- type-writing work. I would make prominent mention also of the fact that after his transfer from Hospet, the special pay was not drawn for any other typist who worked in the Sub Collector's Office, Hospet, and there was therefore no extra expense to the Government. It would be a great hardship if he is now required to refund the allowance already paid to him these two years. I therefore request that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of the Government for the waiver of the recovery of Rs.170/- paid to him from November 1932 and also for allowing this individual to draw his special pay of Rs.10/- as personal in any office so long as he is actually engaged in typewriting work.

3. I am requesting the Accountant-General, Madras, not to recover the excess amount of special pay paid to the Typist pending orders of the Government.

Voucher No. A. 24-1 regarding the admissibility of type-writing allowance to Mr. S. Sundaraja Mudaliar. Your reply dated 7.6.34 thereon.

As per para 2(2) of G.O. 130 Public Department dated 15.2.1928 special pay of Rs. ~~10~~ 10/- is admissible so long as the typist who is eligible for this allowance is actually engaged in typewriting work and continues to hold the post to which the special pay is attached. As the typist's post in the Revenue Divisional Office, Bellary, does not carry the special pay, the special pay drawn by Mr. Sundaraja Mudaliar till now is inadmissible and should be recovered.
The sanction of Government promised to be obtained to regularise the overpayment is however awaited. This office circular No.
T.M. 25.8-3924 dated 11.5.1928 referred to by you called for only a list of typists who were in receipt of special pay of Rs. 10/-. As Mr. Sundaraja Mudaliar has been transferred from Collector's Office ~~at~~ Bellary, to Revenue Divisional Office, Bellary, his case will have to be governed by G.O. 130 Public

It is observed from the Annexure to the G.O. that the special pay was ^{not} sanctioned to any of the Rev. Divisional offices in the Bellary Dt.
